

WWD Know the Trends Before Everyone Else

Get an Insider's Perspective on the Fashion Season

SUBSCRIBE TODAY

BUSINESS

Hourly Minimum Wage to Get Lift at Target

FASHION

Milan Fashion Week: Highs – and Highs

BUSINESS

CEO Talks: Tarang Amin, E.l.f. Beauty

SPONSORED
The rise of a new Generation - FASHIONALLY Collection #10

FASHION / FASHION SCOOPS

Weekend Max Mara Launches Capsule Collection With Micol Sabbadini

The capsule was inspired by the Aegean Islands imagery

By Luisa Zargani on September 25, 2017

A look of the Weekend Max Mara capsule with Micol Sabbadini Courtesy Image

A look from the Weekend Max Mara capsule by Micol Sabbadini Courtesy Image

SAILING AWAY: Weekend Max Mara has teamed with Micol Sabbadini for a capsule collection that revolves around the Milanese art photographer's images of exotic locales. For the collection, Sabbadini has drawn on the sun-drenched imagery of the Aegean Islands of whitewashed houses, marine scenery including boats, intricate mosaics and luscious Mediterranean peonies, all recreated in a collage of patterns.

The 12 pieces include dresses, trousers, shirts, skirts and accessories in shades of white, blue and pink. "The mood is European summer — coastal houses in Greece, sailboats in the sea and snatches of text I find wandering around with my camera on days off," said Sabbadini.

WWD Know the Trends Before Everyone Else
SUBSCRIBE TODAY

Examples include a cotton poplin men's wear-style shirt in a collage of digitally printed sailboats bordered with peonies and mosaic patterns. An all-over floral pattern can be found on a pair of wide-leg, high-waisted trousers in crêpe de chine and a full-length shirt dress in cotton poplin. Silk foulard scarves and Weekend Max Mara Pasticcino bags were also revisited by Sabbadini.